

AGN. NO.

MOTION BY CHAIR HILDA. L. SOLIS
AND SUPERVISOR ANTONOVICH

May 17, 2016

Extension of the Reward in the Murder of the Following Victims:
Brian Lewandowski, Michelle Littlefield and Richard Threadway

On February 27, 2016, Mr. Brian Lewandowski, Ms. Michelle Littlefield and Mr. Richard Threadway were traveling in vehicles, along the Santa Ana (5) Freeway, between Atlantic Boulevard and Washington Boulevard, when the suspect vehicle, who was racing and traveling at a high rate of speed, caused a multi-vehicle collision. The collision resulted in three deaths, three victims being critically injured and two victims having minor injuries. One of the deceased victims, Brian Lewandowski, is the son of Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Homicide Bureau, Lieutenant Victor Lewandowski.

To date, California Highway Patrol – East Los Angeles Office and Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department Homicide Detectives assigned to the case have identified and arrested the driver of one of the vehicles engaged in the speed contest causing the collision; however, they have not received any viable clues regarding the identity of the second vehicle which fled the scene after the incident.
